The Children's Land--the Toyland That's a Real Joyland

Oh my, what toys! Ouh-u-u, aren't those cute! Mama see the dolls! Daddy, look, oh look please! Gee, wish I had that!

Those childish expressions of the deepest delight human beings ever express in their short lives cannot help but rouse mothers and fathers to the wondrous importance of a Toyland to a child. Santa Claus has gathered together in our Toyland a simply marvelous array of the world's finest toys, games, machines, wagons, tri-cycles, dolls, and hosts upon hosts of other really good toys to delight the young folks.

Paris, France, November 25.—Japan is willing to send a strong army to Europe if the need arises, according to a Tokyo correspondent, who quotes Baron Ishii, foreign minister, as follows: "Thus far we have not considered the eventuality of sending an army to Europe, but if there is occasion therefor, Japan will immediately send one expedition a very strong army. Japan does not intend to risk a check."

Using Explosive Bullets.
Paris, France, November 25.—Montenegrin forces continue to retreat before the Austrians. The official statement, forwarded yesterday from Cetinje, says:

"Our Sanjak army continued yesterday to retire in good order on defensive positions. The enemy is almost inactive. Artillery fighting is in progress on the other fronts."

"The Montenegrin government has proofs that the Austrians are using explosive bullets against the Montenegrins."
